Andrew Rozier Named Share Health Southeast Georgia Scholarship Recipient

Andrew Rozier was one of three high school students awarded a scholarship from Share Health Southeast Georgia. This scholarship was available to both traditional and non-traditional students; traditional students are those who reside in and attend high school in the sixteen counties served by the Southeast Health District, and non-traditional students are those enrolled in a degree program in public health or healthcare and reside in one of the sixteen counties of the Southeast Health District.

Andrew Rozier is a new graduate of Pierce County High School and is pursuing an education in Pre-Med at the University of Georgia. Andrew was a part of the National Honor Society, Beta Club, Student Council, Math Team and played sports at Pierce County High School. Andrew has also been awarded various honors throughout his high school experience. These include the Satilla REMC Washington Leadership Award, Most Improved Player, Coaches Award and an Academic Award. Andrew plans to gain his Pre-Med degree at The University of Georgia and continue his education in Augusta, Georgia, at the Medical College of Georgia to become a general surgeon. Andrew Rozier has an undeniable passion for helping others and furthering his education in the healthcare field.

Share Health's Board Chair, Josh McCarthy, M.D., states, "The Share Health Scholarship Program is used as a mechanism to further our mission and as a strategy to recruit and retain the public health workforce in Appling, Atkinson, Bacon, Brantley, Bulloch, Candler, Charlton, Clinch, Coffee, Evans, Jeff Davis, Pierce, Tattnall, Toombs, Ware and Wayne counties".
